About the artist

Hello my name is Daniel Froehling and I am currently a Freshman at The University of Minnesota. In High School I was the director of Men of The Century, a Men's Acappella Group at the Century High School. Now I am the President of Serenade the City, a group here at the U. I'm a Bass Two (the best section by far). I've always enjoyed singing, and writing sheet music is only taking the experience to another level. I hope you enjoy what you hear, and feel free to use the music however you want.

About the piece

Title: A Romanian Tragedy
Composer: Daniel Froehling
Arranger: Daniel Froehling
Licence: Public Domain
Publisher: Daniel Froehling
Instrumentation: Choral TTBB a cappella
Style: A cappella
Comment: I wrote this piece as a sort of comedy thingy. It's supposed to be sung with a very serious tone, but with very silly words. I was inspired by Tim Jones of Moosebutter. Have fun!
