

FALLEN FROM THE SKY

Words and Music by GLEN HANSARD

Moderately ♩ = 114

Verse 1:

Emaj7

C#m

1. You must-'ve fall - en from the sky. You must-'ve shat-tered on the

mf

F#m

B

Emaj7

run - way. You've brought so man - y to the light

C#m

F#m

B

and now you're by your - self. 2. There comes a point in ev - 'ry

Verses 2, 3, & 4:

Emaj7 C#m F#m

fight sky. when giv - ing up seems like the on - ly way, sky. You must - 've come here in the pour - ing rain.
 sky. You must - 've come here on the wrong - way.

B Emaj7 C#m

when ev - 'ry - one has said good - bye and now you're on your own...
 You took so man - y through the light and now you're on your own...
 You came a - mong us ev - 'ry time, but now you're on your own...

F#m B F#m11

— If you need somewhere to fall a - part,
 — If you need somewhere to fall a - part,
 — If you need somewhere to fall a - part,

B F#m11 B

— some-where to fall a - part. Oh, the
 — some-where to fall a - part. Oh, the
 — some-where to fall a - part. Well, they

Chorus:

Emaj7

C#m

F#m rules of Cain, the rights you've made, the owls that caw for ruins of man, the blood - y black, the fool, the bull, the call you saint, the bas - ket case, the rules of thumb you

B

Emaj7

C#m

those to blame. The bro - ken glass, the fool that asked the proud - er hag. The nights, they make the rat - tle ack, the have to break. The rag - ing skull, the rag to the bull, the

To Coda

1.

2.

F#m mov - ing ar - row to stop. 3. You must - 've fall - en from the out - ed man. The wolves that fol - low the nails that drag in

A

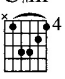

fall - ing star, the way we are, the vern.

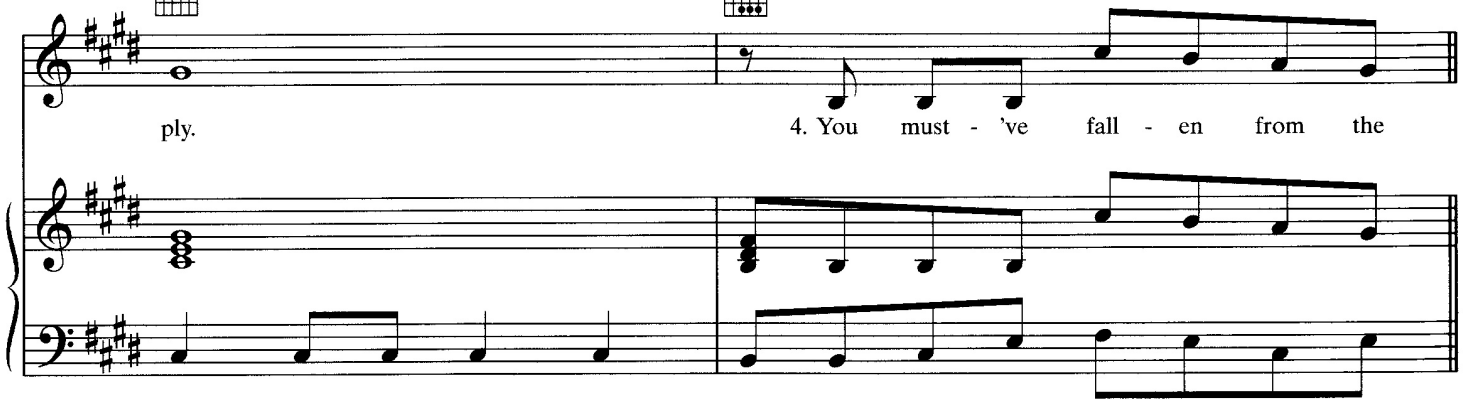

A

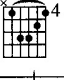

The rules that nev - er, ev - er mul - ti -

C#m  B  N.C. D.S. al Coda

ply. 4. You must - 've fall - en from the $\Phi$  Coda B  Emaj7  C#m

ei - ther hand. Well, I will make my work - er that, I know__ this place, I know__ this time.

F#m  B

Emaj7  C#m  F#m

B  Emaj7  N.C.

You must-'ve fall - en from the sky.

Repeat ad lib. and fade

