I'm try-ing not to think a-bout you, can't you just let me be? So long my luck-less ro-mance,

The first system of the musical score consists of a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line is written in a treble clef with a 7/8 time signature. It begins with a quarter rest, followed by a series of eighth and quarter notes. The lyrics are: "I'm try-ing not to think a-bout you, can't you just let me be? So long my luck-less ro-mance,". The piano accompaniment is written in a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The right hand plays chords in the treble clef, and the left hand plays a single note in the bass clef.

my back is turned on you, should have known you'd bring me heart - ache,

The second system of the musical score continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line starts with a quarter rest, followed by eighth and quarter notes. The lyrics are: "my back is turned on you, should have known you'd bring me heart - ache,". The piano accompaniment continues with chords in the right hand and a single note in the left hand.

al - most lov - ers al - ways do.

The third system of the musical score concludes the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line starts with a quarter rest, followed by eighth and quarter notes, ending with a double bar line. The lyrics are: "al - most lov - ers al - ways do." The piano accompaniment continues with chords in the right hand and a single note in the left hand, ending with a double bar line.
