need to know the na - ture of the de - mons — that pos - sess man's soul. I need to know why man's con - tent to let them make him less than whole.

7 8 9

10 11 12

13 14 15

Why does he re - vel in mur - der and mad - ness, what is it makes him be less than he should, why is he doomed not to reach his po - ten - tial? His need to find a way to get in-side the tor-tured mind of man.

16 17 18 19

30 31 32 33

need to try to se - pa - rate the good and e - vil if I can.

34

35 36

Why does a wise man take leave of his sen-ses? Where is that fine line where sa - ni - ty melts? When does in - tel - li - gence give way to mad-ness? A mo - ment comes when a man be - comes some - thing else...

37 38 39

43 44 45

- I need to know why man plays this strange dou - ble

46 47 48

game, his hand al - ways close to the flame. It's a deal with the de - vil he can - not dis-claim, but what's his

49 50 51

52 53 54 55

aim, I need to know!

56
Dear God guide me and show me

57 58

59
how to suc - ceed, with your wis - dom in - side me.

lead. I need to

65

66
see the truth o - ther men can - not see to 67 68

69
be things that o - thers can't be. Give me

70

71
cour - age to go where no an - gel will go!

72

73
And I will go. I need to

74 75 N.C.

76
know!
